Thank you to everyone who took part in the library's Great Easter Egg Hunt competition.

Students were asked to answer five questions related to books in the SNS Reading List, which were placed around the school.

Five were chosen randomly out of a hat out of many who answered the questions correctly.

The five winners received a chocolate Easter egg. Well done!

Top 5 most popular books borrowed from the Library: Spring Term 2016

The 2016 shortlist for the CILIP Carnegie Medal was announced on 15 March. The SNS Library will again be taking part in a Hackney wide shadowing programme. A reading group has been set up to research, discuss and come up with creative presentation of the book. Last year, our school won the 'Best Visual' award for making a stunning film trailer for the book 'Tinder' by Sally Gardner. This year, the students will be reading 'Fire Colour One' by Jenny Valentine. The show ase will take place on 16 June and will be hosted by Kate Saunders, the author nominated for her novel 'Five Children and the Western Front.' Read on to find out more about the nominated novels.

These students volunteered the most hours during the Winter Term 2015.

Well done and thank you for all your hard work!

'Five Children on the Western Front'

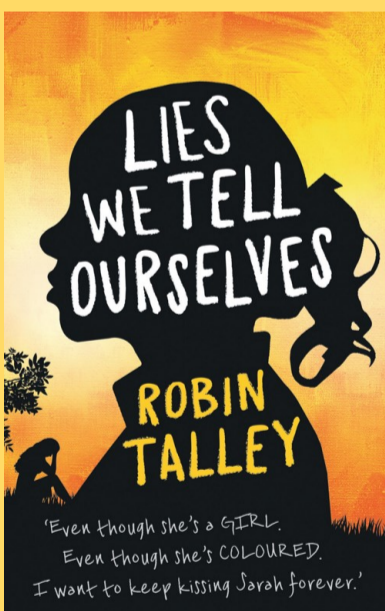

by Kate Saunders

An incredible, heart-wrenching sequel to E. Nesbit's Five Children and It, set on the eve of the First World War. The five children have grown up and war will change their lives for ever. Cyril is off to fight, Anthea is at art college, Robert is a Cambridge scholar and Jane is at high school. The Lamb is the grown up age of 11, and he has a little sister, Edith, in tow. The sand fairy has become a creature of stories... until he suddenly reappears. The siblings are pleased to have something to take their minds off the war, but this time the Psammead is here for a reason, and his magic might have a more serious purpose. Before this last adventure ends, all will be changed and the war's impact will be felt right at the heart of their family.

'The Ghost of Heaven' by Marcus Sedgwick

The spiral has existed as long as time has existed. Follow the ways of infinity to discover its meaning. It's there when a girl walks through the forest, the moist green air clinging to her skin. There centuries later in a pleasant green dale, hiding the treacherous waters of Golden Beck that take Anna, who they call a witch. There on the other side of the world, where a mad poet watches the waves and knows the horrors they hide, and far into the future as Keir Bowman realises his destiny. Each takes their next step in life. None will ever go back to the same place. And so their journeys begin...

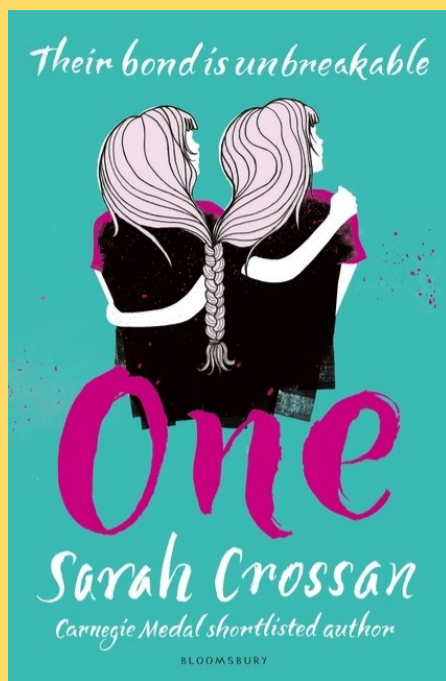

'Lies We Tell Ourselves' by Robin Talley

It's 1959. The battle for civil rights is raging. And it's Sarah's first day of school as one of the first black students at previously all-white Jefferson High. No one wants Sarah there. Not the Governor. Not the teachers. And certainly not the students - especially Linda, daughter of the town's most ardent segregationist. Sarah and Linda are supposed to despise each other. But the more time they spend together, the less their differences matter. And both girls start to feel something they've never felt before. Something they're determined to ignore. Because it's one thing to stand up to an unjust world - but another to be terrified of what's in your own heart.

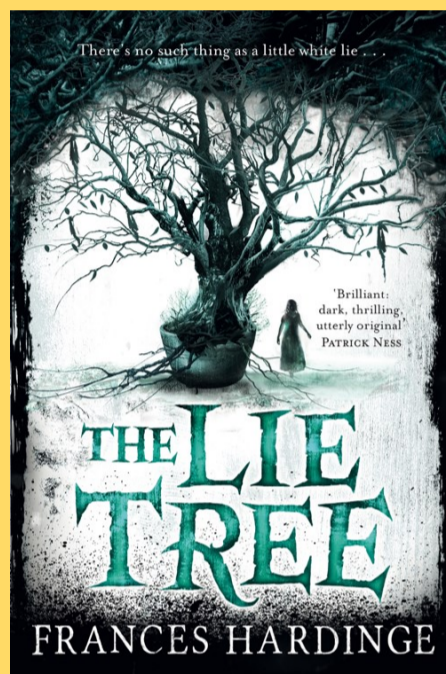

'Fire Colour One' by Jenny Valentine

A bold and brilliant novel about love, lies and redemption. Iris's father, Ernest, is at the end of his life and she hasn't even met him. Her best friend, Thurston, is somewhere on the other side of the world. Everything she thought she knew is up in flames. Now her mother has declared war and means to get her hands on Ernest's priceless art collection. But Ernest has other ideas. There are things he wants Iris to know after he's gone and the truth has more than one way of coming to light. .

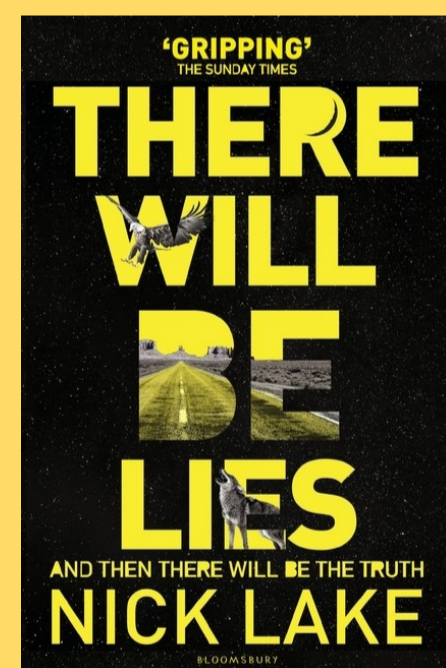

'One' by Sarah Crossan

Grace and Tippi are conjoined twins. And their lives are about to change. No longer able to afford homeschooling, they must venture into the world - a world of stares, sneers and cruelty. Will they find more than that at school? Can they find real friends? And what about love? But what neither Grace nor Tippi realises is that a heart-wrenching decision lies ahead. A decision that could tear them apart. One that will change their lives even more than they ever imagined.

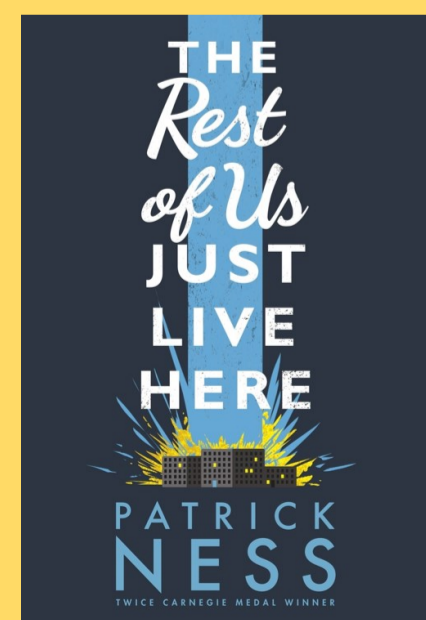

'The Lie Tree' by Frances Hardinge

Faith's father has been found dead under mysterious circumstances. As she searches through his belongings for clues, she discovers a strange tree which only bears fruit if you whisper a lie to it. The fruit of the tree, when eaten, will deliver a hidden truth to the person who consumes it. The bigger the lie, the bigger the truth that is uncovered. The girl realizes that she is good at lying and that the tree might hold the key to her father's murder. She begins to spread untruths far and wide across her small island community. But as her tales spiral out of control, she discovers that where lies seduce, truths shatter...

'There Will Be Lies' by Nick Lake

When Shelby gets knocked down by a car, it's not just her leg that's broken: Shelby's world is shattered. Her mother turns up to collect her and drives off into the night, like it's the beginning of a road trip, like two criminals on the run. And somehow, everywhere she looks, there's a coyote watching her, talking to her, telling her not to believe. Who is Shelby Jane Cooper? If the person who keeps you safe also tells you lies, who can you trust?

'The Rest of Us Just Live Here'

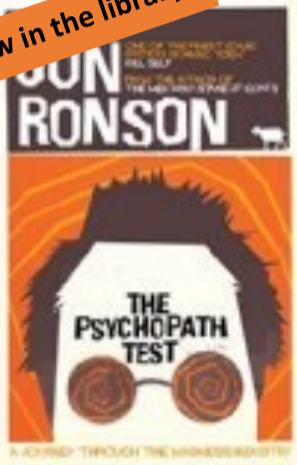

by Patrick Ness

What if you weren't the Chosen One? The one who's supposed to fight the zombies, or the soul-eating ghosts, or whatever this new thing is, with the blue lights and the death? What if you were like Mikey? Who just wants to graduate and go to prom and maybe finally work up the courage to ask Henna out before someone goes and blows up the high school. Again. Because sometimes there are problems bigger than this week's end of the world and sometimes you just have to find the extraordinary in your ordinary life. Even if your best friend might just be the God of mountain lions...

Available now in the library!

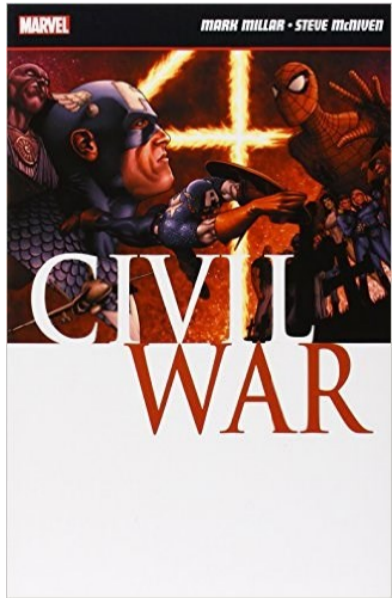

Title: The Psychopath Test
Author: Jon Ronson
 Combining Jon Ronson's trademark humour, charm and investigative incision, The Psychopath Test is both entertaining and honest, unearthing dangerous truths and asking serious questions about how we define normality in a world where we are increasingly judged by our maddest edges.
Suggested by: Ms. Barbara Bouman

Title: The Fill-in Boyfriend
Author: Kasie West
 The problem is that days after prom, she can't stop thinking about her fill-in boyfriend. But can Gia turn her fake boyfriend into a real one without exposing her lie and possibly destroying her friendships and her newfound relationship?
Title: Love, Tanya
Author: Tanya Burr
 Hi everyone and welcome to Love, Tanya! This book is really close to my heart, because it's inspired by my journey to becoming confident and feeling happy about who I am. I wanted to write a book to share the things I've learnt with you - to reveal my top tips on fashion, beauty, love, friendship, YouTube... and loads more! Plus, there is room for you to list your own hopes and dreams alongside mine - so get creative and get involved! I'd love it if this book became a keepsake you can turn to whenever you need some guidance or a little pick me up. I hope you enjoy it! Love, Tanya

Title: Marvel Civil War Series
Author: Mark Miller
 The landscape of the Marvel Universe is changing, and it's time to choose: Whose side are you on? A conflict has been brewing from more than a year, threatening to pit friend against friend, brother against brother - and all it will take is a single misstep to cost thousands their lives and ignite the fuse! As the war claims its first victims, no one is safe as teams, friendships and families begin to fall apart. The crossover that rewrites the rules, Civil War stars Spider-Man, the New Avengers, the Fantastic Four, the X-Men and the entirety of the Marvel pantheon! Collects Civil War #1-7, plus extras.

Mehmet says:
'I think this comic would be a great addition to the graphic novel collection because it's not really like the regular superhero comic. I hope the library would buy the entire collection. I would be in the library all the time.'

Guess!

Staff members were inspired to dress up from a book for World Book Day on 3 March 2016. Can you guess the source of their inspiration? Answers at the bottom!

1.

Do you know what happens to a toad when it's struck by lightning?

2.

I'm pretty much the best person I know.

Guy don't need no sense to be a nice fella. Seems to me sometimes it jus' works the other way around. Take a real smart guy and he ain't hardly ever a nice fella.

I'm late, I'm late, for a very important date!

5.

Off with their heads!

It ain't no lie. We're gonna do it. Gonna get a little place an' live on the fatta the lan'.

I understand what you're saying, and your comments are valuable, but I'm gonna ignore your advice.
