

Half term	Unit Title	Description
9.1	The Rise of Dictators	Looking at the rise of fascism across Europe. Topics include the state of Europe post WW1. Students to start source comprehension and evaluation.
9.2	The Holocaust	Rise of Hitler in Nazi Germany and the Holocaust. Focus on students being able to construct an extended GCSE style answer which evaluates two causes in comparison with each other.
9.3	Migration, Empires and the People, 790 to the present day.	British Thematic Studies: Conquered and conquerors Students to learn how to comprehend and evaluate sources, compare historical events, explaining the impact of an event both at the time and over time, and how to compare factors. Unit begins looking at the Vikings and Anglo Saxons and key figures such as Alfred the Great.
9.4	Migration, Empires and the People, 790 to the present day.	Looking west: Britain and the Atlantic world Students look at sixteenth and seventeenth century Britain, covering topics including The Jamestown Colony, British development of the Slave Trade and the American War of Independence.
9.5	Migration, Empires and the People, 790 to the present day.	Expansion and empire Focus on the Industrial Revolution in Britain, covering topics such as the Highland Clearances, Irish and Jewish migration to Britain.
9.6	Migration, Empires and the People, 790 to the present day.	Britain in the twentieth century Last unit topic focuses on contemporary Britain, covering topics including The Windrush, Independence for India and Brexit.