Half term	Unit Title Hyperlink to SOW	Description
10.1	Section A: Urban Issues and challenges Global patterns of urban change and opportunities and challenges of urban growth	3.2.1 Global patterns of urbanisation and contrasts between HICs and LICs and overall factors (push and pull). Students then go on to study a case study of an urban area which has seen rapid growth and the challenges created by that.
10.2	Section A: Urban Issues and challenges Urban change in UK cities and urban sustainability	3.2.1 The economic, environmental and social challenges and opportunities associated with urban change in the UK as well as an example of an urban regeneration project and sustainable urban areas (features of)
10.3	Section B: The Changing Economic World Global economy and Nigeria	Students start off looking at development around the world - how it's measured and why it's different and then they focus on a specific region for ways in which the development gap can be reduced and more specifically how tourism can be used to reduce the gap Continuing on from the previous work students will be looking at a major case study of a country that has undergone rapid economic development and then they will contrast this with edconomic development in the UK today and in the future
10.4	Section B: The Changing Economic World The UK	3.2.2
10.5	Section C: The Challenge of Resource Management Resource Management Around the World and in the UK.	Students start off by looking at global inequalities in resource provision and then move on to look at resource provision in the UK. Students look at the issues around water supply and demand around the world and in one specific region

10.6	Fieldwork Walton on the Naze	Students will be conducting fieldwork in Walton on the Naze and then completing a write up of their findings and exam parctice to prepare for paper 3